Our Development

Man has been endowed with a mind and the power to think and learn. His anatomy is more complex than any other animal on earth. But the anatomy of a school is unique. It is composed of many human beings, their activities, their happiness, their disappointments.

The school's skeleton is the faculty and the advisors. Without the skeleton, the body would be a useless mass. The muscles co-ordinate and unify the movement of the body as the athletics of the school unify the students. The awards and honors constitute the school's nervous system by keeping the students alert and providing them with higher goals for which to strive. The heart, center of life itself in the body, is the student, the center of life in the school.

Both the school and the body are composed of many parts, but all are needed to perform a particular task to enable the harmonious functioning of the whole.

We of the LOCK staff for 1961 present to you our interpretation of THE ANATOMY OF OUR SCHOOL . . .

Our Structure

Although Miss Emmons is closing the door to her teaching career, she will be remembered as one who opened the door of knowledge for many.

Dedication

Having devoted her entire life to the teaching profession, Miss Emmons is a perfect example of dedication to a profession. After teaching for 35 years, 34 of which have been spent at LTHS, she is now entering a well-deserved retirement.

Throughout the course of her teaching career, Miss Emmons has given of herself by being the guiding light which has led many students through the "portals of knowledge."

The influence of contact with her has helped many a young adult in becoming a better citizen with finer ideals.

In parting we would like to leave you with one thought, "You have acted well your part, there all the honor lies."

Amid her many activities, Miss Emmons still finds time to create various kinds of different candles.

"C'est la France, classe." Miss Emmers not only taught languages, but also promoted interest in the culture of other countries.

During moments of relaxation Miss Emmers enjoys reading books in English, French, and Spanish.

As is known by many, the student body president is a person of many talents. This is the case with our student body president, Mary.

Many thanks go out to the girls who made the bowling team so successful. TOP: Sandra, Mary, and Jane. MIDDLE: Faye, and Jane. BOTTOM: Faye, Anderson, and Caroline Crocker.

Look Kathy, you did it again! The members of the telegraphic bowling team are Sharon DePro, Vivian Long, Charlene Seeley, Kathy Nicholls, and Donna Maske.

G. A. A.: Pleasure

For girls with extra energy who desire to learn new sports and improve old ones, and for those who wish to have some fun, the Girls' Athletic Association provides for, and sponsors the Girls' Athletic Association. It is one of the largest organizations in the school, and is important too, because it is the only organization that teaches curricular sports for girls. GAA gives the girls a chance to learn good sportsmanship, to help build character, and to meet new friends.

The sports in which the girls may participate include tennis, volleyball, basketball, tumbling, bowling, and life saving.

Basketball and volleyball interclass and all-star tournaments are held at the close of their respective seasons. The members of these teams were selected on the basis of attendance, sportsmanship, and ability.

Chapman's warm and friendly smile is the keynote of her personality.

Always ready and willing to help is GAA sponsor, Mrs. Pickering.

with a Purpose

One event of particular interest each year is the State Telegraphic Bowling Tournament. The ten girls with the highest averages from the first semester league bowl a three game series, the five highest scores represent Lockport in the state tournament.

Another activity offered by GAA is water safety. This valuable training may be put to practical use when they least expect it.

At the end of the year the girls were awarded pins and letters for all the time they spent in each activity.

With the exception of the seniors who will have but fond memories of the good times and comradeship that they enjoyed while members of the GAA, the girls look eagerly forward to the next season of activities and sports.

Get that ball, get that ball, get it, get it, get it!

Although a new comer this year, Miss Messenheimer was warmly received by everyone.

The GAA officers for the 60-61 season were Marion Scheuber, secretary; Mary Jane Marco, treasurer; Kathy Nicholls, president; Georgene Skeldon, vice-president.

Neptune's Darlings

Certainly no one would object to being picked by one of these girls, Jeanna Rodeghero, Sandy Wood, Melissa Lee, Maria Schaebe and Carol Keffe.

Intent on winning her senior life saving badge, Charlene Koren practices a cross chest carry on Jeanna Rodeghero.

Basket shooting was again made available this year for those girls who were especially accurate in their shots or wished to improve their shooting percentage. Ten girls are chosen for their ability to make baskets from eight designated points on the floor, and their scores are sent to the state office to represent Lockport. This year the girls placed a commendable second in the district. The ten best scores were Carol Mandeville — 10, Agnes Hawkins — 13, Betty Landon — 14, Joyce Cotter — 14, Marge Janasz — 16, Jesse Myers — 16, Bev Stortz — 17, Diane Wolfe — 20, Karen Abrams — 22 and Barbara Wrock — 23.

Two of the better tumblers, Debra F. and Linda Sandstrom, execute a difficult stunt.

"Whew!" E. King, R. McGinnis, M. Janasz, J. Beshears, L. Harper, C. Smith.

Pep-a-Plenty

Cheering, the spark of almost every athletic contest, has become an organized activity at JHS. The Pep Club strives to promote good sportsmanship and encourage school spirit by means of zealous cheers and spirited posters.

Some of the activities of this year's club were the sale of mums and pennants for Homecoming, and programs for basketball games. It was also the Pep Club that added variety to school pep assemblies for nights and days. The club's success was due to the new activities which played quite effectively.

Thanks to the enthusiastic students composing the club, and its sponsor, Miss Evans, this was another successful year. Let's give the Pep Club a cheer!

During one of our pep assemblies, these Pep Club members "rounded up" another victory for the Porters.

The success of the Pep Club depends on the efficiency of the sponsor and officers. Georgene Skeldan, president; Grace Bachmann, vice president, Sandy Pauly, secretary; Janice Ayers, treasurer; and Miss Evans, sponsor.

The Porter squadron was ably represented by four outstanding exceptions: Alvin Sandner, Russ Bolatt, Bruce Fulton, and Cecil Underhill.

The 1961 Porters powerhoused their way to the most successful season since 1957. Under the leadership of Coach Zimmer and Assistant Coaches Blum and Deskin, the Porters powered to a 4-4-1 record.

After losing last season's opening game with Evergreen Park by a single point, the ever-fighting Porters were bound and determined this was not to be repeated. Their intensive determination proved valuable when they trounced Evergreen Park 14 to 0.

The second game, with our traditional rivals Catholic High, proved to be neither a victory nor a defeat. The outcome evolved in a score of 7-7, our only tie of the season.

Argo then dealt us our first defeat. This was, however, a very close defeat with a score of

Mr. Zimmer

Bill Rumchok

18-6 victory at Homecoming over the Kankakee Kays. Homecoming, being the most important game of the season, will long be cherished by all.

Although losing the next three games to Blue Island, Joliet, and Thornton respectively, the Porters gained valuable playing experience. This priceless playing experience ran true to form when the Porters walked away with the final two games of the year. Thornridge fell beneath the sharp spikes of the Porters when they were defeated 27-7. In the last game of the season, Bloom felt the full force of the mighty Porters. They, too, were forced to bow in defeat 27-20.

Without exception, the student body congratulates the Porter-Power Houses and their coaches on their "Kick-Off to Success."

The depth of the Porters was strengthened when last year's lettermen, Ted Lincoln, Dennis Strong, Tom Johnson, Bill Carr, Joe Simon, Jim Goeke, Joe Fabbro and Rich Spink returned to again offer their playing ability.

As the starting gun echoed through the air the Porter multi-milers leaped into their second season. Cross-country is still considered to be in its infancy at Lockport, nevertheless, the spirit and determination exemplified by these fine athletes laid the stepping stones to success. These guide marks will be used by the future Porters.

The multi-milers were under the expert direction of Mr. Rogers from whom they learned the basic fundamentals and principles of cross-country. Mr. Rogers was assisted by a capable manager, George Nordstrom.

De Wood Park again served as the proving grounds for the multi-milers. Day by day, hour by hour, the time on the grueling, two mile course was whittled down to fractions of a second. It is certain that these precious seconds will be decreased even more in the future by the unceasing efforts displayed this year by our Porters.

Runners come to your marks. Go. Go. Go. After two grueling miles the porting Porters finish line to capture second place.

Although winning only over Argo and finishing fifth in the South Suburban Conference, the Porters never took the defeatist attitude. Instead, they always reared back into the race with the desire to do their best. Consequently, all learned the value of teamwork and the importance of good sportsmanship. These desirable characteristics, in turn, will eventually construct the tower to success when the first place trophy for cross-country comes to Lockport.

Varsity Encounters New Competition

This one's good for another two points towards man victory

The Lockport Jytes under the direction of Coach B. Connors have provided wholesome entertainment for the L.T.H.S. student body from November 1960 through March of '61. Although not achieving an exceptional record the Jytes have displayed for more performance in the field of basketball sportsmanship and ability. The Big Five was never supplied but rather the ever growing need of good sportsmanship was consistently exemplified.

This year has opened the doors to a good deal of new hard fighting competition. The Jytes are now in the lead and just ownship in our first game with the Porters 41 to 40. The Jytes roared back with a 40 to 40 victory. The same story applied in the first with the Porters. We were defeated 41 to 40 but again the Jytes are back in the lead in the second game 41 to 40. The Porters then went on to defeat Kanabek who upset in the District Tournament last year.

Needless to say it was a very close win but rather how hard you fought that counts. We are now in the lead for the season with one more game to go. We are now the Jytes because we are over 100 in our record book.

During the second game with the Porters the Jytes were in the lead

Play ball! For many years to come these two, time-honored words shall linger in the minds of many Porter baseball fans. For the second consecutive season the Porter nine has championed the Regional Baseball Tournament and then gone on to establish a most impressive record. The final Porter scoreboard revealed a very successful season of 13 wins and 4 losses.

The first game of the season, a 3-2 victory over Carl Sandburg, set the pace. We then went on to defeat our next two opponents, Wilmington and Lemont, 6-1 and 12-4 respectively, but finally we fell to Kankakee. The next win, over Joliet Township, was brief for we later bowed to Argo. With four wins and two losses the Porters rounded the bases with three wins over Blue Island, Lemont, and Plainfield. The following game with Thornton of Harvey, which served as a season's highlight, went thirteen straight innings in a dead-lock tie of 4-4 before the umpire called the game, giving each exhausted team a well-deserved win. Five out of the next six games were decisive Porter victories as we fell only once to Morton.

Following in last year's tradition, the Porters finished the season with a glorious 3-2 victory over Naperville.

Susan Harris and Jim Standard continue their battle in the eye for an eye outline as they present Eddie Murrie with his new newspaper team.

The Student Council is a school activity which provides students with the opportunity of sharing in the governing of their school. Helping to govern the student body is only one phase of the work of the Student Council. Throughout the year the council has met and found enjoyment in the Smith Foyer. During the Christmas season, members played mailmen by distributing thousands of cards to students and faculty. Various other homecoming was successfully coordinated by the council as well as many pep assemblies and two dances. With the aid and guidance of Mr. Pryor, the problem of finding a quiet place for the council was brought to view and became the student council's special project for the year.

With the aid and guidance of Mr. Pryor, faculty sponsor, and the able leadership of the co-presidents, Carole Redicks and Eddie Murrie, Student Council has capably coordinated the action of the students for the betterment of the school.

This year's FTA officers have led their club through a successful year. Donna Woodhouse, president; Grace Bachmann, vice-president; Harriet Wood, historian; Pat Woods, secretary; Mrs. Shoop, sponsor; and Richard Schultz, treasurer.

The Edward F. Worst Chapter of the Future Teachers of America has completed its eighth successful year at LTHS.

The organization, sponsored by Mrs. Shoop, is designed to offer the opportunity of learning more of the teaching profession.

Panel discussions, educational movies, and guest speakers provided the members with valuable information concerning their chosen career.

Actual teaching experience was gained by the Junior and Senior members who participated in the annual cadet teaching program. This two-day project, held in our local grade schools, helped many to decide if they really wanted to teach.

FTA members will find that the knowledge and experience received this year will be of great profit to them in the future.

Leaders of Tomorrow

The Future Farmers of America is an organization banding together all boys who are enthralled with agriculture and all of the mysteries that it holds.

Besides learning all they can about their future careers, the members of the Future Farmers work very hard to qualify for election to the degrees of Green Hand, "Chapter Farmer," State Farmer, or American Farmer, and many other awards of merit offered by the local, state and national organizations of FFA.

Mr. Lawrence, faculty sponsor, has helped guide the boys through another successful year.

The future farmers will find the skills and knowledge gained in FFA invaluable in future years when they become the "leaders of tomorrow."

Future Temperature Takers

Scalpel ... forceps ... sutures ... In a few years these phrases will probably be familiar to our 'Future Temperature Takers.' But for now, the Future Nurses are preparing themselves for the future by learning all they can of the profession.

Members gained valuable experience by working with the Freshman physicals, while their knowledge of the field broadened through visits to various hospitals, and interesting talks by several speakers. Among the projects accomplished during the year were collecting for the March of Dimes and helping with the coat check at home athletic contests.

With the help of Mrs. Habenicht, FNC sponsor, the members have succeeded in preparing themselves for the future.

'Ready, willing and able' is an apt description of our Junior Red Cross under the supervision of Miss Debenardo, the club has tackled many worth-while projects and completed each with ease. Besides making and distributing programs for home foreign games the group collected used items for children overseas, sold peanuts to benefit charity and constructed stuffed animals for underprivileged children.

Stranger Than Fiction

Formed by students who have an avid interest in science, the Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Pryor, seeks to gain knowledge of the many different fields included.

Mr. Pryor, Science Club sponsor, demonstrates the use of the analytical balance.

Club members carry out special projects throughout the year, both at home and at their regular meetings. Homemade radio sets and many other projects, and interesting speakers from numerous scientific occupations, provide members with knowledge of their careers, including college requirements and job opportunities.

Although the Science Club is only two years old, it will continue to grow and become important in the future as progress is made in the area which is "stranger than fiction."

Business World Beware

The main goal of the Future Business Leaders of America is acquiring knowledge of the business world. Research is done on the placement opportunities and requirements for jobs.

FBLA held a campaign week from October 3 to November 4, the purpose of which was to inform the business students about the club and its activities.

Among the projects that the FBLA has successfully completed under the capable supervision of the sponsor, Mrs. Marwaring, are a doughnut sale and a field trip to a business concern to observe its operation. Perhaps the biggest project was the compiling of a booklet of rules for punctuation, capitalization, term paper writing, and so forth which they hope will become an accepted standard at LTHS among English and business teachers alike.

We have only one more message about these industrious students:

Business World. Beware.

Kay Lewandowski, Joene Dewald, Annmarie Gorecki, and Barb Traylor contributed much time and ambition to the compiling of the FBLA handbook.

Carol Sowa, reporter; Georgina Helberg, reporter; Carol Lowe, treasurer; Donna Maske, president; Janice Voltarel, vice-president; Sandy Phelps, secretary; and Mrs. Marwaring, sponsor, discuss future plans for the FBLA.

Besides teaching the members the skills in handling the projector, Mr. Jorgenson demonstrates the techniques of fighting.

Sam Adams and Don Connor start the day by checking the equipment to be sure it's ready for action.

Always willing to lend a helping hand are the members of the Projectorists. These boys are available throughout the day to aid teachers with the operating of projectors. The public address system, used in all the school assemblies and special programs, is also operated by the members of this club.

Mr. Jorgenson's fine leadership and instruction are responsible for making these boys the capable projectionists they are.

... Will Sing

"Do or do not, there is no in-between." The A Cappella officers tell us that practice makes perfect. Left to right: Sandy Smith, secretary; John Moroz, treasurer; Dan LeGrand, vice-president; Sally Davis, president.

Under the expert direction of Mr. Donald F. Meints, the JHS chorus brought enjoyable music to many people. Eyes were bright and voices were pitch perfect as they presented the show-themed Spring Concert April 29th. Those in the audience thrilled to see the singers putting their hearts into song.

Presentation was not the only advantage the vocalists received from their membership. Many of them enjoyed a trip to the Concordia Concert in Chicago where they heard the ringing sounds of the professional perfection. The JHS Band Concert was enhanced by the blending voices of the A Cappella Choir. In all their many activities the singers found time for lots of fun along with their musical work.

And everyone who saw them perform could truly say that the singers believe in the sound of music.

Our Pep Band can always be counted upon to lend enthusiasm to our home games and variety to our assemblies and pep sessions.

Lock . . . a Treasure

"OK," says Mr. Sampson, LOCK sponsor, as he checks a stamped hand.

ASSISTANT EDITORS: Lorel Geddes, Merlene Goe, and Sally Johnson

The LOCK room is the center of activity for all LOCK staff members.

Dead lines, deadlines, deadlines! Deadlines are the plague of all LOCK staff members, but without them, the yearbook could not successfully cover the activities of the school year. In order that the LOCK may perform more proficiently, there are two separate staffs, the editorial and the business staffs.

The editorial staff is primarily concerned with the structure of the yearbook including the layout, dummy, copy, and proofreading. The members of the editorial staff work long and diligently in order that a true picture of Lockport Township High School can be given in our LOCK.

The business staff's main concern is that of helping to get the books sold and delivered. Because the students pay only half the cost of the LOCK, the yearbook staff sponsors a dance after every home game in order to raise money. Another duty of the business staff is that of helping with the student identification pictures.

Without the counseling of its sponsor, Mr. Gordon Sampson, the LOCK staff would be unable to function. The LOCK is, indeed, important to every student, for within its covers are contained the many cherished memories of days at Lockport High School.

Where's your copy? Headlines? Do you know when you can type my article? Oh, I'll never make that deadline.

These words and many others, probably uttered by members of the TIMES, have been heard during the school year. Circulating throughout the body of the school, the TIMES spreads news far and wide to all the students. Behind the circulatory system is the ever busy sponsor, Mr. Ennis, who has completed his second year at LTHS. Under his capable leadership the school paper has shown steady improvement.

Three individual staffs, the editorial, advertising, and business staffs, are responsible for each issue of the paper. From the editorial staff comes all the writing and drawing which is enjoyed by all. Besides Passing their candles through the flames of scholarship, character, leadership, and service, each new member realized that a great responsibility had been placed upon his shoulders. He must live up to the ideals of the chapter not only as an obligation to himself but to his school as well.

This year 42 new members and 8 honorary members were elected to the James McKinnon Smith Chapter of the National Honor Society. Carrying on the year's activities were 24 seniors. During the beginning of the year the NHS acted as ushers for the incoming students and later sponsored a freshman assembly explaining the extracurricular activities. The chapter also bought a new flag for Lockport's campus. As a money raising project they sold school stationery.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Mitzi and the officers, the group carried out their year's project, tutoring. Students who felt they needed help in any subject submitted their names and were willingly given assistance by a NHS member. We are proud of the members of the National Honor Society and of their service to the school and to the community.

Upperclassmen Receive

Revere and John Benjamin, sponsor of the American Legion Post #1 of the American Legion, jointly presents the distinguished American Legion medals to the year's recipients, Calvin Redicks and Robin Baathed.

One of the last and most memorable highlights of the school year was the Awards Day Assembly of May 19, during which students were honored for their outstanding achievements.

The first awards to be presented were twelve American Legion honor certificates. Of these twelve candidates a boy and a girl were selected as winners of an award of exceptional distinction, the American Legion medals. Both the faculty and the students took part in choosing these top seniors and also in selecting the DAF winner. She was chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

Every year the Lockport Women's Club contributes a scholarship grant to a college-bound senior who is expected to benefit from such financial aid. This organization also gave music and art camp scholarships to three underclassmen. A relatively new award to be presented at Lockport is the Mathematics award sponsored jointly by the Mathematical Association of America and the American Society of Actuaries. Another innovation to the awards was the Home Economics Award which was presented to the senior girl who excelled in scholarship and activities in the Home Economics Department.

The Awards Day Assembly was climaxed by the passing on of the senior hatchet and trowel by the president of the class of 1961 to next year's senior class president.

Madred Harper accepts a letter and certificate and a medal from Eric Bischoff, as appreciation for her performance in the American Legion Centennial Contest.

Mildred Ruddle gratefully accepts a scholarship grant, to be used in aiding him in his quest for further knowledge from Mrs. Eunice Ruark, a representative of the Lockport Women's Club.

In place of a "gold-plated pitcher" the DeKalb Agricultural Award was presented by Mr. Lawrence to George Anderson for his eminent vocational activities.

Honor and Recognition

It is a far-sight to see Corale Redens behind the lectern addressing the student body, exemplifying the characteristic of leadership, a necessary qualification of the winner of the DAR Award.

Mrs. Morrison presents the Home Economics Award to Mary Ann Smrekar for her achievements in this department during the past four years.

With the passing down of the traditional hatchet and trowel presented by Rolie Bolattina, president of the senior class of 1961 to Bob Zitzke, president of next year's senior class, go the privileges and responsibilities of every senior class.

As winner of the Mathematics Contest of Lockport, Ron M. A. received the Mathematics Award from Mr. Beseman who acknowledged Mr. Benson and John H. Beck as runners-up in the contest.

Congratulations were in order not only on Awards Day, but also at graduation when outstanding seniors were honored for their scholastic and attendance records.

To rank highest scholastically in a class after four years of high school is extremely praiseworthy. For this achievement the graduation of the graduating class was honored with a diploma. Ranking second in the class of 1954 was shared by three students this year.

For outstanding achievement in mathematics and English the deserving senior was given the Award for Academic Achievement. As a result, other the owner of the company is being satisfied.

in behalf of the National Honor Society, President Tam Johnson presents Mr. Flink and the school a new fifty-story American flag.

To qualify for an Illinois State Scholarship, students must attain high scores on the ACT. Seniors from Lockport were Betty London, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860,

They said it couldn't be done. The seemingly unattainable goal of perfect attendance was achieved by Lenny Meier, Frank Gutierrez, Barb Kade, Lucy Allen, George Anderson, and Dwight Feryanre.

On the basis of his high achievements in science, mathematics and English, Tom Meier received this year's American Chemical Society Award.

Home

Exciting and exuberating is the perfect description of our 1960 Homecoming. The annual Friday afternoon parade that rolled past the enthusiastic parents, students and friends was unprecedented at Lockport. The Senior class produced the first place spectacular "We'll squeeze out a victory." "We swan't a victory" which was constructed by the Sophomore class captured 2nd place, while the Junior class entry, "We're re-lion on our team," carried off 3rd place.

Reigning over the gala festivities were Queen Susan Harris and King Dennis Lapikas.

On Friday night, the Homecoming crowd witnessed Lockport's gridiron battle against Kankakee. Later that evening the celebration ended with the alumni and students dancing to the music of the Rainbows. The Porters will long remember the 1960 Homecoming not because of the extravagant floats or the victorious game, but just because this was Homecoming.

The "S'want " for a victory floated by the Sophomores was captured with their very attractive entry.

Smiling appreciatively Suzanne Knorr, student director, Miss Yvonne Narkus, and Mr. William Tipler display their gifts from the cast

As the curtain arose on the Junior Class Play on the evenings of November 17 and 18, a hush of expectation enveloped the audience.

"You Can't Take It With You," a hilarious comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, is the unfolding of the very unusual, if not slightly eccentric, Sycamore family. Alice, the only really sane member of the family, falls in love with Tony Kirby, Jr., vice-president of the Kirby Company. The sophisticated Kirbys, after learning of their son's engagement, are invited to dinner at the Sycamore home. Upon arrival, they encounter firecrackers, skyrocketes, Communistic literature, exotic candies, ballet dancing, and snakes. Alice then refuses to marry Tony because of the vast differences in their families.

As the curtain slowly closed, the cast was reassured of its success by the audience's response. They then understood that "You Can't Take It With You," only its memories.

"Want you try one of my Love Dream?" asks Doug Emerson as Chuck Hughes looks on.

After having a Run-in with Michaelson, Marvin Rock apologetically helps him up.

The spinster of the play, Sally Davis, was dispatched with a hypodermic after being accused of driving an innocent girl to suicide.

The giddy Oxonian, Tony DeAngelis, choked to death on potassium cyanide.

The "ten little Indians" referred to the cluster of statuettes on the mantelpiece of a weird country house on an island off the coast of Devon, and to the nursery rhyme embossed above them, telling how each little Indian met his death until there was none. To this queer Byzantine mortuary eight assorted guests were invited for a week by a mysterious host.

While the guests were assembled for cocktails prior to going in to dinner, a voice came out of the air, accusing everyone present, including the two house servants of murder ---

Then the excitement began and never let down until the final curtain.

Under the student direction of Grace Bachmann and the faculty direction of Miss Norkus and Mr. Tipler, the first mystery in five years was certainly a success.

The sound effects produced by our backstage crew made the play complete.

On December 26th sleighbells rang as couples drifted into the cafeteria. This year's annual Christmas dance, presented by the Lockport Township High School Music Department, was entitled "Holiday Sleigh Ride." As couples floated in, they found themselves surrounded by beautiful winter scenes of sleepy, little towns under the crest of a new-fallen snow. The soft music of Don Adams and his orchestra filled the room and added to the peaceful atmosphere of Christmas. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Chuck Pastore and Virginia Ward as king and queen, who reigned for the night. All who attended found many, many "moments to remember" in this thrilling evening.

Moments

The traditional coronation kiss gave a romantic evening a fantabulous conclusion.

Ellen Hopkins, Virginia Ward, and Linda Murphy work earnestly to transform a few snowflakes into a breath-taking winter wonderland.

The music, atmosphere, and Faye Anderson all lend to the ecstatic look on Jim Goeke's face.

There is nothing more lovely than an evening under a shimmering moon, as the couples attending "Moonlight Ecstasy" soon found out. This year's annual spring dance sponsored by the LTHS Student Council, was held in the cafeteria on March 11.

The couples danced dreamily under the soft glow of blue lights to the sweet flow of the music of Bill Carnegie and his orchestra. Many couples stopped to admire a lovely miniature waterfall at one side of the room.

As the magic hour of the crowning of the king and queen drew near, everyone gathered around the bandstand. After a few moments of suspense, the names of Virginia Ward and Dick Jones were announced. The royal couple then led the grand march.

This moonlit evening was one filled with memories and one which ended all too soon for everyone.

"What is it about that waterfall," says Barb Cheney as Carm Lowe very appreciatively stops to admire it. Randy Thomas and Marilyn Resette stop a few moments to admire the lovely miniature waterfall.

to Remember

Virginia Ward can't get over her amazement at being named queen again, but after this reward from King Dick, she finds she doesn't mind at all.

Couples drift around in the dreamy moonlight atmosphere set by the music of Bill Carnegie's orchestra.

Before every pleasure there is some work as Ed Miller, Cathy Pike, and Frank Tresseder will tell you.

Parisian

The drawing and painting of murals was the beginning of the best Prom LHS has ever seen. Parisian park, city, and country scenes were beautifully recreated under the capable leadership of the decoration committee chairmen.

While this preparatory activity was going on, the social part of the festivities was being carried out. First, the asking for and the accepting of a date was accomplished. Then the students busied themselves with a million and one other necessary tasks including shopping for formals and renting tuxedos.

At last the anxiously awaited evening arrived. The nervous young men hesitantly called for the equally nervous young ladies. Thus, the attractive couples set out for an exciting and memorable evening.

Many cake parties were the scene of frosty pastel formals and white dinner jackets. Conversation and compliments created a scene of carefree, delightful young adults.

Leaving the cake party to go to the long-awaited Prom are Dave Beaver, Judy Mostyn, Micard Ruddel, and Nina Anzzolin.

Barbara Allen thanks Sally Wohlgemuth and Bill Findlay for the lovely time she had at the cake party.

"Oh, Mike I'd love to go to the Prom with you," says Nancy Jensen.

"I hope she likes them, too," comments Ray Morrison as he picks up his flowers at the Lockport Flower Shop.

Holiday

Finally, the apprehensive couples arrived at a "Parisian Holiday." Walking into the foyer, they were surrounded with city scenes, the Eiffel Tower, and a delightful sidewalk cafe. Entering the beautifully transformed gymnasium, they were surrounded with an unbelievable likeness of Parisian parks and landmarks. After drifting to the dreamy music of the Buddy Everett orchestra, the moment arrived to depart from the "Parisian Holiday."

An enchanting restaurant was the next place ornamented by the lovely young people. After enjoying delicious dinners, sleepy students drifted off into dreamland, only to wake up in the morning to look forward to a day of frenzied activity.

All in all, "Parisian Holiday" was termed the biggest Prom success in the history of LTHS.

Larie just can't seem to make up her mind about which dress she likes best.

"Whoops, I almost stuck you that time," Jackie Ward says to Dave Morrison.

"Gosh, Jackie, are you sure it will all fit in the car?" asks Dave Morrison.

dramatically to the coronation.

Dr. and Mrs. B. Fink enjoy the music of Buddy Everett and his orchestra just as much as the students do.

Pat Miller and Joanne Schneider aren't too worried about whether or not Phyllis Glad can fix the zipper on the robe.

Pat Miller reigns as the boys get ready to take the big step.

Rolf Bolaffino, president of the senior class, starts the ceremony with the pledge.

Beginning

"Your day is as you want it," quotes Bill Carr, one of the class speakers.

Sally Davis expresses the worthwhile idea: "Work, perseverance, and service yield success and happiness."

Mr. Corro, who presents Shirley B. Sney her diploma, and offers his congratulations.

In halls we love so well
Maroon and white we wear for you
Our loyalty we pledge
